Processional Hymn

“I come with joy to meet my Lord”

Hymn #304

1. I come with joy to meet my Lord, forgiven, loved, and free, in awe and wonder to recall his life laid down for me.
2. I come with Christians far and near to find, as all are fed, the new community of love in Christ’s communion bread.
3. As Christ breaks bread and bid us share, each proud division ends.
That love that made us makes us one, and strangers now are friends.
4. And thus with joy we meet our Lord. His presence, always near, is in such friendship better known: we see and praise him here.
5. Together met, together bound, we’ll go our different ways, and as his people in the world we’ll live and speak his praise.

The Word of God

Opening Acclamation

BCP p. 355

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit..

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen

The Collect for Purity

Celebrant: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria in excelsis sung in unison

Hymnal S-280

Glory to God in the highest and peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. ✠ Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LESSONS

The First Lesson (Jonah 3:1-5, 10)

Reader: A reading from the Book of Jonah.

The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying, “Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.” So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, “Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!” And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm 62:6-14 Nonne Deo? Said antiphonally by the people

Reader: For God alone my soul in silence waits; *
truly, my hope is in him.

People: He alone is my rock and my salvation, *
my stronghold, so that I shall not be shaken.

Reader: In God is my safety and my honor; *
God is my strong rock and my refuge.

People: Put your trust in him always, O people, *
pour out your hearts before him, for God is our refuge.

Reader: Those of high degree are but a fleeting breath, *
even those of low estate cannot be trusted.

People: On the scales they are lighter than a breath, *
all of them together.

Reader: Put no trust in extortion;
in robbery take no empty pride; *
though wealth increase, set not your heart upon it.

People: God has spoken once, twice have I heard it, *
that power belongs to God.

Reader: Steadfast love is yours, O Lord, *
for you repay everyone according to his deeds.

The Second Lesson (1 Corinthians 7:29-31)

Reader: A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel (Mark 1:14-20) Please stand where you are, if able.

Celebrant: The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Mark ✠

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

(✠ Appropriate times to make the sign of the cross)

After John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.” As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, “Follow me and I will make you fish for people.” And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Jon Roberts

Nicene Creed - All stand, where you are, if able, and say in unison

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead ✠, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Celebrant: Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Leader: Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world

Silence.

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Leader: Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Leader: Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Leader: Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Leader: Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Leader: We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Leader: Let us pray for our own needs and those of others. (We invite you to share your intercessions)

Silence

Concluding Collect

Priest: Hasten, O Father, the coming of thy kingdom; and grant that we thy servants, who now live by faith, may with joy behold thy Son at his coming in glorious majesty; even Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Confession of Sin Stand, sit, or kneel, as able

BCP p. 360

Clergy: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
Most merciful God . . .

People: We confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, ✠ strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Announcements

Everyone is invited to come forward to receive either the Blessed Sacrament or a Blessing from the Priest. Due to the Bishop's decree, the chalice with the blood of Christ is not to be administered at all, in any manner. Here are the following signs to make when coming forth:

Blessing only: Cross arms over chest

Bread only: Hands, stacked and open

All Baptized Christians may receive Holy Communion and others are encouraged to receive a Blessing from the priest, especially young children who have not yet made their first Communion. After reception, quietly return to your pew and pray. You are receiving spiritual food on this day.

The Holy Communion

Celebrant: Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God. Ephesians 5:2

The oblation of your tithe and offering are to be placed in the alms basin in the center aisle, prior to, or after the service. They will be collected after the service by a member of the Altar Guild.

Offertory Music

Doxology

Old 100th – Isaac Watts

Hymnal #380 (vs.3)

Sung reverently by the people

*People: Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost*

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

BCP p. 367

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant: [Proper Preface] Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus sung by the people

Hymnal S-125

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant: We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life. ☩

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." ☩

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." ✠

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with [_____ and] all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer Said in unison

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem

Hymnal S-152

A period of silence is kept.

This setting may be sung full by all, or by the choir, or as a versicle and response.

Setting: Ambrosian chant; adapt. Mason Martens (b. 1933)

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith with thanksgiving. Ephesians 3:17

Communion Music

Everyone is invited to come and receive the Blessed Sacrament or a Blessing by the Priest. The Bread is given to the communicants with these words: "The Body of Christ, the Bread of Heaven."

Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant: Let us pray.

People: Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The Blessing & Dismissal

Celebrant: The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be with you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Celebrant: Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

People: Thanks be to God.

Closing Hymn

"O Master let me walk with thee"

Hymn #660

1. O Master let me walk with thee in lowly paths of service free;
tell me thy secret; help me bear the strain of toil, the fret of care.
2. Help me the slow of heart to move by some clear winning word of love; teach me the wayward feet to stay, and guide them in the homeward way.
3. Teach me thy patience; still with thee in closer dearer company;
in work that keeps faith sweet and strong, in trust that triumphs over wrong,
4. in hope that sends a shining ray far down the future's broadening way;
in peace that only thou canst give, with thee, O Master, let me live.

Postlude

"Toccata"

D. Buxtehude

Those present should remain reverent through the playing of this special, concluding music. Let it be a time of continued meditation on God's Word & Sacrament, to which you have received.

You may also leave quietly, not to disturb this peace.

Please continue to support Mike Alford in prayer during his first year of training for ordained ministry at Virginia Theological Seminary. VTS is an Episcopal seminary located in Alexandria Virginia. Keep him, Rebecca, Zach, Grace and Jacob in your prayers.

Please continue to pray for Sandy Rogers as she completed her spiritual discernment with the Calvary Discernment committee and will now be presented to the Diocesan Commission on Ministry. Sandy graduated from Union Theological Seminary in New York a few years ago and the discernment regarding her future course in The Episcopal Church is in process. Keep her and Rebecca in your prayers.

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of Calvary Episcopal Church will be next Sunday, January 31, immediately following the 10AM service. It will be streamed live on Facebook. Please make plans to attend this important meeting in the life of the Parish, either by Facebook or in person.

Vestry Candidates

We are delighted to report that six members have stepped forward to stand for the open seats on the Vestry. If no other members come forward, there will be no need for an election at the Annual Meeting. Our candidates are Bob Cannistraro, Pete Chabot, Betty Cole, Connie Curran, Shirley McAllister and Gary Spivack. Please thank them for answering the call and for their service.

Winterfest on the Rocks

Mark Your Calendar; Winterfest is March 13, 2021

Plans are going forward, ideas are circulating, interesting things are happening. Instruments are being tuned for entertainment, baskets being readied for the auction, vendors are readying items for sale.

✂ Grab a friend and make a basket for the Auction!

✂ Know someone who has a craft item to sell? Vendor forms are on the website! And there is no fee!

We need you to make it happen! There is lots to do before and after the event.

Please join the weekly Winterfest meeting via Zoom and catch up on all that is happening.

Stewardship Update

The impact of Covid on all small businesses has been significant and alarming with many of such closing their doors and unable to meet their financial responsibilities. Although we do not consider ourselves a business, nor small, our ministry of proclaiming the Good News of Jesus is a mighty responsibility we take to heart. The role of the Church is vital to overcome such challenges in our world where people feel the stress and burdens of life. Therefore, our church depends on you, God's faithful witnesses to help us continue this ministry. We are the beacon of hope and the proclaimers of peace in the world through the mighty acts of God so please pray about how you may support the church financially.

Our Stewardship campaign technically ended with the year, but we have not met our goals and are still accepting pledges. Currently we have met 81% of our pledged commitment goals with 57 commitment entered into Realm and a combined total of $138,417.00. We appreciate all that you do to support us in time, talent and treasure. If you have not yet submitted your pledged commitment yet, it is not too late.

Text Giving is now offered at Calvary from your cell phone. You can actually give your tithe & offering from the pew, using your cell phone. In your text message window enter 73256 (our ID #) where the phone number would go (disregard the dash which may appear on some phones), then tap in CALVARYIRB (all caps) in the subject line. It will take you to the giving page for Calvary, where you can bring your pledge up-to-date or perhaps give something extra to offset our losses due to the pandemic.

This QR Code is a Giving Link that will automatically take you to the Realm giving page for Calvary. It allows safe and convenient access to your giving record, 24/7. If you have never used a QR code reading application you can download a free app from your app store, found on your mobile device. Once installed, use it on your mobile device by holding over this image. Some phones only require you to scan with your phone's camera.

The Bible Project with Moderator Bill Athanson meets every Wednesday, at 10am in Barge Hall and on Zoom. Join us to discuss the Gospel books of the Bible. We will be in Barge Hall because there is plenty of space for masking and social distancing. And each session will also be available through Zoom! If you care to join via Zoom, please make your request to the church or directly with Bill to get the Zoom link invitation. Please bring and wear your own facemask.

Be an Evangelist by sharing the good news of Jesus on your Facebook page. Each Sunday you log onto your Facebook account and begin watching our Live Stream of the service, “Like” or “Share” with others by selecting these features. Help reward our efforts to get the word out, and invite others to church in this simple way. Don’t be surprised to learn that many of your friends would come and join us if only they were invited. Be an Evangelist by sharing the good news.

The Church is Open Mondays -Thursdays 9am-1pm. The Red Doors remain open to allow private prayers by members and visitors alike, who wish to feel close to Jesus in peace and quiet. Every effort is being made to keep the sanctuary disinfected as we want those who desire the need for solitude to have a safe place they can come and pray. Safe practices signs are displayed. Consider an hour a week to come and sit in our sanctuary to pray for our church, our Rector and Staff, our Vestry and volunteers, and all of those on our prayer list. Consider what a profound impact that would have.

Father Robert's Sermons can now be found on a digital platform, where commentary from all of his past years of preaching can be resourced. They are indexed by each of the Gospel Evangelists and include the various artwork he has used to illustrate them. Please use this free resource and share with your friends and family.
